Dear Ms. Day,

Thank you for your helpful instructions today concerning the payments due pertaining to the Notice of Incomplete Reply (Non Provisional). I was not aware of the fees that my patent attorney's problems have caused with your processing of this patent application, because all of the notices that the PTO has sent have been going directly to his firm and have not been forwarded to me. I am contacting his office to have the power of attorney that I granted to the firm recinded so that any future correspondence will come directly to my office.

As per your calculations, I am including $546.00 on the required extension fees plus the $358.00 for the total number of claims over 20, for the total of $913.00 that you calculated. I'm sending a copy of the Notice of Incomplete Reply form with my payment.

All future correspondence is to go to John M. Heasley, 1614 Dover Street, Iowa City, Iowa 52240. Thank you again for your help.

Sincerely,

John M. Heasley
